

Chair Report June 2023 Branch meeting

Thank you to you all for your continued support of the branch.

It is with regret to advise that Ady Elliott has had to step down as our Welfare Officer. This is due to work commitments with the British Army in Dhekelia. We wish him and his family well for the future.

This position and other vacant positions will be advertised in due course and any successful candidates will be voted in at the AGM in November.

The Poppy Ball has been organized and full details will be give under point 5.

Organisation for Remembrance Sunday is underway. We are still looking for wreath layers for the following:

Merchant Navy

Royal Engineers

Royal Air Force Police

Prince of Wales Own

The Cyprus Regiment
